

Direct Support Worker

El'dad Ranch, near Steinbach, is an Initiatives for Just Communities program providing a secure and nurturing place to live for men with intellectual disabilities of various levels. One of the programs, the El'dad OutReach Program, provides support for adults with intellectual disabilities in community toward positive living by learning new life skills.

Excellent opportunity for someone who wants to supplement an income whether a student or a retired individual. Invaluable in gaining experience for social work, teaching or any other occupation that deals with working with people.

Hours: Flexible hours up to 40 per week.

Pay: Base $13/hour depending on the program, higher rates based on experience.

Duties: Supervise and interact with participants. Encourage participants towards positive decision making and achieving their goals.

Requirements: Pass Criminal Record and Abuse Registry checks. Valid driver's license.

To apply, please contact:

Trevor Utech, El'dad Ranch

at 326 1050 ext. 5 or eldadranch@initiativesjc.org